

The Team Around the Child & Family

What does this mean?

- You are part of the team.
- Different professionals work together to support your child.
- This may include school staff, health services or other agencies.
- Support is joined-up and focused on your child's whole needs.

What can you expect?

- Clear communication about who is involved and why
- Information shared with your knowledge and consent
- Meetings where everyone understands their role
- Agreed actions and next steps after meetings
- Professionals working together rather than separately
- Support that focuses on your child's strengths as well as needs
- Interpreters or adjustments provided if needed
- Regular review to make sure plans are working

How can you be involved?

- Share your views and what matters most to you and your child
- Ask who is involved and what their role is
- Ask how information will be shared
- Join meetings and reviews
- Speak up if support feels unclear or uncoordinated

You are an important part of the team around your child
